

Opening Address

On behalf of Politeknik Negeri Jember, it is a great honor to welcome all participants to the 8th International Conference on Food and Agriculture (ICoFA 2025). This international forum brings together scholars and professionals from various countries to discuss current issues and innovations in food and agriculture. We highly appreciate the enthusiasm and active participation of all contributors.

We hope that ICoFA 2025 will foster meaningful academic discussions and open opportunities for future collaboration.
