

PREFACE

The 2nd International Conference on Maritime Education (ICOME 2023) provides a forum for scholars, professionals, practitioners, and students who are committed to advancing education, particularly in the maritime domain. The ICOME 2023 is organized by the Universitas Maritim Raja Ali Haji (UMRAH), Indonesia.

The ICOME 2023 was held virtually (on zoom meeting) as well as in-person at UMRAH's Dompok Campus, Tanjungpinang on November 7-8th 2023. This event was attended by more than 250 participants and speakers from various countries, such as Indonesia, Australia, Malaysia, Japan and UK, that came from different backgrounds, mostly from academia, followed by a number of members from government, and communities. At the ICOME 2023, there were 116 papers titles presented in plenary and parallel sessions. Topics of the papers revolve around maritime environmental education, marine biodiversity and ecosystem, maritime sector in climate change mitigation, environmental protection in maritime activities, and sustainable shipping practices and technologies.

The participants of ICOME 2023 are affiliated with numerous universities, research centers, and organizations such as University College London, Monash University, Universitas Pendidikan Sultan Idris, Universitas Maritim Raja Ali Haji, State University of Surabaya, School of Pharmaceutical (STIFARM) Padang, Riau University, Universitas Jambi, Universitas Islam Negeri Sultan Syarif Kasim, Sekolah Tinggi Ilmu Pelayaran (STIP) – Jakarta, UIN Syarif Hidayatullah, Universitas Borneo, Sriwijaya University, IPB University, State University of Jakarta, Universitas Negeri Padang.

The ICOME 2023 consisted of plenary and parallel sessions, featuring interactive talks by speakers and question and answer sessions. The conference was held over two days, with the plenary session taking place on October 7 and the parallel session taking place on October 8. The time allocated to deliver the talks were 40 minutes for each plenary speaker and 7 minutes for each parallel speaker. There were 8 parallel rooms and up to 14 speakers per parallel room.

In the plenary session, six invited speakers delivered presentations on different topics, namely Prof. Alan Reid (Monash University), A/Prof. Dr. Gillian Kidman (Monash University), Prof. Ukaji Yukata (Kanazawa University), Prof. Dr. Tajul Shuhaizam Bin Said (Universitas Pendidikan Sultan Idris), David Wei Dai, Ph.D., FHEA. (University College London), and Suryadi, SS., M.Ed. Ph.D. (Universitas Borneo Tarakan).

We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to all of the authors, participants, peer reviewers, and speakers who have inspired us and participated in this conference with their incredible accomplishments. Of course, we are also grateful to have the outstanding organizing committee team of the Academic Staff of UMRAH on our side, who put in a lot of effort to plan and support with the conference.

It is hoped that this conference will make a real contribution to the development of Indonesian education, especially the improvement of maritime education.
